

HUMAN RIGHTS & JUSTICE IN CANADA

THE CASE OF OMAR KHADR

FRI
SEPT
19
2014

DENNIS EDNEY (QC) is the recipient of the National Pro Bono Award (2008) and the Human Rights Medal (British Columbia, 2009). "The story of Omar and Guantanamo Bay reflects the failure of civil society, its institutions, and its people to speak out in ensuring our shared values of a just society are carried out." — DENNIS EDNEY
